

3, It was always my understanding that the Larimer family purchased our farm, and perhaps much more of that valley, from the Phillips family, who lived in the other valley to the south of our land, and who owned the patent.

or up the road going west the Boyer family lived on quite a large farm, and to the north of my grandfather's home lived Aunt Rachel Boyer, then going east from her home or I believe it is King Road, lived the Billy Goodworths, and later was owned by the Frank Bakers.

I suppose I would hardly recognize that part of the country now. It is so built up.

The place where my darling cousin lived (Bell Hicks) was the home my grandfather built for my mother and father when they married. I understand Earl Ater, who lived there died some time ago and that property was left to our
